

Gulet Angelica Crew Profile

Frano Gugic – Yacht Master

Age: 44

Nationality: Croatian

Languages: English fluently, Italian conversational.

Frano Gugic was born in seaman's village of Racisce in the island of Korcula, Croatia. After completing his post secondary education, he joined the Marine Faculty in Split, Croatia to complete his Bachelor of Science with major in Marine Engineering. Frano has been sailing for past 20 years. Prior to becoming Owner and Master of Angelica, he had sailed on "Royal Caribbean International" cruise vessels and on different Cargo and Reefer ships before that. After he reaches this very demanding professional high level, he decided to follow his hart and pursue a career that matches the passion he has for small boats and yachts. With a wealth of knowledge and experience, Frano welcomes you on board the beautiful Angelica and wishes you a wonderful cruise vacation.

Zeljko Botica - Chef de Cuisine

Age: 56

Nationality: Croatian

Languages: German – Fluently, English conversational.

Zeljko has a wealth of experience that he has built up since leaving the well established cooks school in Dubrovnik. He started his carrier in Dubrovnik Marina Komolac where he spent 3 years before taking a job as chef on the 36 meter French Yacht 'Atlante Mica'. He enjoyed this immensely but saw an opportunity to broaden his cultural horizons and move to Germany. It is here that Zeljko spent the next 30 years, 10 years as Head Chef in a variety of high calibre restaurants and another 20 years as Owner and Head Chef (Restaurant Dubrovnik, Restaurant Dubrovnik II and Restaurant MarcoPolo).

5 years ago Zeljko decided to come back to the village he lived in as a child along side his neighbour and now Angelica captain, Frano Gugic. It is through there friendship and passion for Croatian cuisine that it was decided he would be the best choice to be the chef on Angelica. With the selection of meals Zeljko prepares on board Angelica, you will get a true feel of the taste of Dalmatia.

Lorena Gugic– Stewardess

Languages: English fluent, Italian conversational, French and German basic level.

Lorena carries degree in economics, but coming with background as hotel receptionist, working in room division department –front office. Lorena is captain's Frano wife and together they are excellent team doing their best to accommodate guest needs and create pleasant atmosphere on board all the time. She will take care on board for all food and beverage serving, accommodation and cabin cleanness and guest care from arrival till departure. With her excellent people and problem solving skills, being able to get along extremely well with all kind of people, Lorena is great asset to the yacht, guests and the crew.

Nikola Gugic – Deckhand

Age: 23

Nationality: Croatian

Languages: English conversational.

Nikola is joining us for his first full season after he helped out last year and thoroughly enjoyed his experience. He is the nephew of the captain, Frano, who owns Angelica with Nikola's father. Nikola is in his third year of study to become a doctor and can't see any better way to spend his summers than to help on the family boat. He is coming from a traditional sailors family with a father who spent most of his adult life at sea. With a charming smile on his face, Nikola will do his upmost to help you enjoy your time on Angelica.
